

Bridging Histories: Memory & Commemoration

Sharing Educational Materials and discussing educational practices

Workshop for Nonformal Youth Educators from Germany and Israel

Internationales Forum
Burg Liebenzell

15 – 19 November 2024

Burg Liebenzell, 75378 Bad Liebenzell, Germany

Organized by: Internationales Forum Burg Liebenzell e.V.

Conducted by: Jovanna Schneider (Internationales Forum)
& Mara List Avner (Historical Division of Hashomer Hatzahir )

Join us in this unique 5-day workshop dedicated to exploring memory preservation, antisemitism, and antiracism education in Germany and Israel. Together, we will re-examine Holocaust commemoration in light of contemporary challenges and discuss innovative educational practices in the aftermath of the events of October 7th.

Participants will engage in meaningful discussions, collaborate on the creation of new educational materials, and visit significant historical sites such as Bad Liebenzell and the Bildungsstätte Anne Frank. The seminar will include insights from expert guest speakers and immersive project work, all designed to enhance your impact as an educator.

Highlights of the Seminar:

- Engage in intercultural dialogue on historical memory.
- Develop tools and materials for educating about antisemitism and antiracism.
- Explore the evolving role of Holocaust commemoration.

Application deadline: September 30, 2024 | Apply here

For more information:

Jovanna Schneider: ✉ studienleitung@internationalesforum.de

Participation fee: 180 €

The fee includes the programme, accommodation and board.

The fee does not include travel for Germans to and from Liebenzell Castle as well as the travel cost to Frankfurt (Main) on the last day of the programme.